Dear Parishioners,

Today after the 10 and 11:30 Masses, everyone is invited to the Parish Hall for coffee and refreshments. This is an excellent opportunity to meet new faces, to have some light conversation and fellowship. Let us make use of this time to make new friends and welcome our new parishioners as we make them comfortable in our parish family. It is always a wonderful feeling to belong and to be a part of a family of God for we are all brothers and sisters in Christ.

Today we celebrate the THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

One of the most interesting and intriguing stories in the Bible is the tale of Jonah. We call him the runaway prophet. Jonah is asked by God to go to the great city of Nineveh and tell the people that God is going to destroy them in forty days. Jonah believes that God is so merciful, therefore, the city will not be destroyed. If this is Jonah's first mission, it is also his first refusal. Instead of going to Nineveh, he decides to go to Spain. He thought that in Spain no one would laugh at him for being a failure.

Jonah makes the mistake of thinking he can travel out of God's reach, but he is in for a big surprise. He buys his ticket, boards the ship, and settles down to sleep for the trip. There is a huge storm and the ship threatens to break up. While all the sailors are busy praying and throwing cargo, Jonah is fast asleep. The captain orders him to get up and pray, and when Jonah sees how close disaster is for everyone, he admits that he is the cause and tells the sailors to throw him overboard. Since tossing passengers overboard is not permitted for sailors, they are hesitant to oblige, but when the seas grow rougher, they change their mind. With Jonah overboard there is calm again.

Then Jonah, who is not good at keeping his mouth shut, meets a whale, not keeping its jaws shut. The image is easy to imagine: Jonah is taken into the depths to be born again. God sends Jonah on a renewal course for a few days.

Jonah has the chance to repent. He is in the depths; he must face himself and what is asked of him. He prays, he reflects. He remembers and promises to fulfill the word of God. When that happens, he is delivered out of the depths and he finds himself on land. And when Jonah is back, the word of God is addressed to him a second time: "Up! Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to them as I told you to."

Jonah obeys. He goes into the city and tells the people that all of them will be destroyed in forty days. It is proclaimed as certain. Everyone pays attention. The king and his ministers command the people to renounce their evil deeds. They hope that if they repent, so too will God.

God repents when the people repent. Everyone is overjoyed. All except one. While the people rejoice, Jonah leaves the city. As he suspected from the beginning, God has a habit of forgiveness. So Jonah argues again with God. He has been put to shame. The prophet has proved a failure. Jonah decides to sit in the hot sun until he dies. But God causes a tree to grow, to shade his prophet. Jonah feels better. But God causes the tree to die, and then Jonah feels sorry for the tree. But God has the last word: He asks Jonah why he is sorry for the tree. Should God not feel sorry for Nineveh, where many thousands of people live?

Jonah is obsessed with being right and he is willing to see all the people perish to be proved right. However, the prophet has to learn that the point of prophecy is not accuracy but repentance. He has to learn that it is never too late to repent.

True enough, the story of Jonah holds out hope for all of us. In that story everyone repents, Jonah himself, the people of Nineveh, even God. What is the good news? That no one is tied to a planned date; no one is doomed to embrace disaster. By choosing to repent we can change our lives. Punishment that has been planned can always be cancelled. Things can change. Amen.

May God bless us,
Father Angelito

Children's Liturgy of the Word will meet Sunday, January 28th at the 11:30 am Mass. All children in grades K-4 (ages 5 -10) are invited to participate. Young children are given the opportunity to listen to a children's version of Sunday's readings and Gospel stories at their own level of understanding and participate in activities that bring the readings to life. Each Sunday's Liturgy of the Word is enriched and modified to make it important and relevant to the lives and experiences of young children. To sign up for this month's sessions, please email clow@sienachurch.org.

January 21, 2018-3rd Sunday Ordinary Time–Year B

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus will teach you to catch others for him. You can catch fish by putting food in front of them. People need soul food to be close to God. People want to go to heaven with God. Tell them that Jesus loves them and died on the cross for them. Tell them he wants everyone to do good. Then people will gladly come into his net. They will be at peace because Jesus will give them everything they need.

Prayer

Lord, help me stay hooked on you.

Mission for the Week

Each morning I will pray that more people follow the ways of Jesus.

Cantors and Choir members are needed for St. Catherine's Music Ministry. If you would love to be part of our ministry of giving to the Glory of God through music please come and join us! Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and Caribbean, rural terrain and a lack of ministers are obstacles to practicing their faith. Our Pastor, Father Angelito, has determined that due to the rising incidence of flu and other communicable diseases, it is prudent to distribute Holy Communion under the form of bread only, and to omit the exchange of peace among members of the congregation. These changes, which are consistent with the Roman Missal, will continue until conditions improve.
