PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

HAPPY EASTER!

Congratulations and a warm welcome to our RCIA candidates who, after completing the process and the rites given by the Church, are now being accepted and received into full communion to the Catholic Church. We are grateful and acknowledge the RCIA team of our parish for giving their precious time, sharing their experiences, inspiration and exerting extra effort for our candidates as they make their journey of faith and respond to God's call to be one among us. Many thanks!

It is quite strange how some of the resurrection readings do not involve a meeting with the risen Christ. Instead, we are told about the stories of those who come to the empty tomb. Perhaps this is because Jesus does not reveal himself to his disciples until they have prepared to meet him. They have to look inside themselves first. The apostles deserted him. On Holy Saturday, they had to consider what they had done. Now they hear something that suggests that this is not the end. He had said he would rise again, but they had not listened. Do they believe now that it might have happened? Are they willing to accept a risen Christ? If it is true, then everything is changed, but change is frightening. Our faith in the resurrection is like that. To find faith, we first have to look inside ourselves, to think about what we have become.

Did you notice how often witnessing or testifying appear in today's readings? Peter calls the disciples witnesses, commissioned to testify that Jesus is the one appointed by God. The prophets are said to witness God's forgiving love. Mary is the first to witness the empty tomb. After she goes to tell Peter, and the beloved disciple, they need to see with their own eyes. Seeing, they believe. Mary, Peter and the beloved are witnesses to the Resurrection. They did not see Jesus rise. They did notice that the tomb was empty. All that remained were the burial cloths, and the fabric covering Jesus' head was separate, which implies an intentional act, not a body snatching. The first preacher of the resurrection, Mary is named apostle to the apostles.

We are also to witness the Resurrection. We did not see Jesus walk the earth like Mary, Peter, or the beloved disciple. However, because we experience the effects of the Resurrection, we see hope where others see despair. The forgiveness in Jesus' dying and rising brings light where others see darkness. Death-dealing realities like sickness, divorce, addiction, or loss give way to acceptance, healing, survival, and recovery. When we admit we are powerless, and that our lives are hidden in Christ, living sincerity and truth lessen the power of malice and wickedness.

Here are some interesting questions, how has your faith in the Resurrection made a tangible difference in your life? Who is the living witness to the power of faith in Jesus Christ for you? Thank them for their testimony.

Dear God, thank you for raising your Son Jesus from the dead. May our words and deeds sing praise and thanksgiving in gratitude for this gift of new life. Amen.

May God bless you,

Father Angelito
