A Message from Fr. Angelito

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we all know Summer Season is over, and we are back to the usual cycle of things in our lives, particularly in our parish community. Beginning the month of October, we will have the Holy Rosary recitation in the Church after the 10 AM Mass on Sundays. As we usually do, we invite everyone to pray and meditate with us on the mysteries of the Holy Rosary in the Chapel after our weekday 9 AM Mass. Recitation and praying the Rosary is a private devotion; however, it enhances and makes our faith more active and vibrant as we journey with our spiritual lives. As a community of faith and one family, it is an effective means and powerful spiritual activity to stand together. As the phrase goes, 'the family that prays together stays together.' So, we welcome everyone to join and be with us as we recite it.

The Religious Education Program is about to begin; and it is not too late to volunteer as we are always looking for help; catechists and aides are always wanted. Kindly reach out to us at the parish office if you are interested in participating in our program. We often mention that the future of the Church lies in our young people, and we strive to prepare, form, and educate them in our faith. We need your assistance and thank you in advance in dedicating your time, effort, and blessing to our young students.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A rather selfish person died and went to heaven. An angel escorted him to his house. They passed along the way lovely mansions, and the man thought, "This one must be mine." When they came to a miserable hut, the angel told him: "This is yours." Shocked, the man protested: "This must be a mistake; please check once again." The angel replied: "There is no mistake; this is the best we could do with the material you sent."

Do we wonder what the crime of the rich man in today's parable was? What did he do to suffer torment in Hades? The parable nowhere blames the rich man for having acquired his wealth unjustly or having committed any crime. He did not kick Lazarus out, shout at him, or try to remove him from near his gate. His only crime was that he never cared for Lazarus. The rich man's sin was not a sin of commission, that is, defined as, something we do that we are not supposed to do.

On the contrary, it was a sin of omission, not doing something he should have done. While enjoying his wealth, he did not bother lifting a finger to help Lazarus in dire need. The frightening thing about Christ's parable is the rich man was a believer taking care to read the Sacred Scriptures and perform his religious duties. But his belief had not changed his attitude toward others. His heart remained like a stone. He did not feel anything at all when he saw Lazarus suffer. Or did he even notice poor Lazarus?

Today's Gospel confronts each of us believers with the question: Towards the goods I possess, whatever the quality and quantity, do I have a truly Christian attitude of evangelical poverty, or do I allow the comforts they offer to lead me into abuses and scandals? Do my resources lead me to live a thoughtless and selfish life without feeling the pain and the dire necessities of the poor, without a heart for them? Is my life insulting the life of the less fortunate, who make up the majority? Our wealth is for sharing. But the wealthier we are, the harder it is to share. Our wealth makes us insensitive; it numbs our feelings, and we do not have the slightest inkling of the plight of the poor. This way is, unfortunately, the greatest tragedy of the rich for they alienate themselves from the bulk of humanity and God.

Lord, help me to be sincerely and actively concerned about the welfare of the poor. Amen.

May God bless you. –Father Angelito

Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

I charge you before God, who gives life to all things,

Saint of the Week

You may know St. Wenceslaus better than you think, he is in fact, the “Good King Wenceslas” from the Christmas carol penned in the 19th century. He was born in 907 near Prague, the son of the Duke of Bohemia, raised and educated as a Christian by his paternal grandmother, Ludmila, who herself became a saint. The land of Bohemia at this time was a place in turmoil. Christianity had not yet taken hold and there were power struggles even within the noble family. When Saint Wenceslaus’ father died, his Christian grandmother became regent. However, his mother who may have been a pagan or at least held anti-Christian sentiments, upset at being overlooked, had Ludmilla killed. Wenceslaus, though young, eventually prevailed. He ruled from 921-929, working at unification, he supported the Church building many churches, including the rotunda of Saint Vitus at Prague Castle. And like in the carol, he cared for sick, poor, widowed, and orphaned in his kingdom. To make peace with Germany, Wenceslaus recognized King Henry the Fowler as the successor of Charlemagne, which put Bohemia under King Henry. The peace was not a popular move with the non-Christian sects and nobles who wanted to remain outside of German rule. Legend holds that his brother, Boleslaus the Cruel, led some anti-Christian movements. Whether Boleslaus plotted to murder Saint Wenceslaus, or they just had a disagreement that ended in his death, it is generally accepted that the saint was killed by Boleslaus or his men. His last words were to forgive his brother. Saint Wenceslaus was immediately recognized as a martyr for the faith and sainted. The Holy Roman Emperor Otto, I posthumously gave him the title “king.” He is the first Czech saint and the patron saint of the Czech state.

WHAT IS IT ?

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL?

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year initiative sponsored by the Bishops of the United States to inspire and prepare the People of God to be formed, healed, concerted, united, and sent out to a hurting and hungry world through a renewed encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist – the source & summit of our Catholic faith.

The revival has officially begun in June 2022, & its milestone event will be a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, Indiana, from July 17-21, 2024. The National Eucharistic Congress are a direct response to the Holy Father's call for a "pastoral and missionary conversion which cannot leave things as they presently are" so that the Church in the United States might be "permanently in a state of mission." (Evangelii Gaudium, n.25)

This Eucharist movement seeks to bring together clergy, religious laity, apostolates, movements, and parish and diocesan leaders to spur momentum, collaboration, and lasting impact for the renewal of the Catholic Church in the U.S. over the next three years. Each year will have strategic focus for formation and missionary discipleship.

WHAT HAPPENED SO FAR?

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

On June 19, 2022, we launched a national response to the Lord's call with widespread Eucharistic processions & adoration on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

WHAT IS NEXT?

YEAR OF DIOCESAN REVIVAL 2022-2023

This first year of the Revival invites diocesan staff, bishops, and priests to respond to the Lord's personal invitation and equips them to share this love with the faithful through Eucharistic congresses & events.

YEAR OF PARISH REVIVAL 2023-2024

The second phase will foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level, strengthening our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, missions, resources, preaching, & organic movements of the Holy Spirit.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

July 2024

At this historic event, more than 80,000 Catholics of all ages will gather in Indianapolis to reconsecrate their hearts to the source & summit of our faith.

YEAR OF GOING OUT ON MISSION 2024-2025

Having enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the faithful, the Holy Spirit will send us out on mission to share the gift of our Eucharistic Lord.

REASONS WHY TO REGISTER IN THE PARISH

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Some people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong.

Registration is a commitment to community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of the parish. Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits and administrative purposes, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining a Sponsor/Godparent Certificate and Letter of Eligibility, and donation statements for your income tax returns. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission.

Registering in the parish is simple. It just requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself by contacting the Parish Office. Young adults 18 and over who are still living at home with their parents, or attend college, are recommended to register in their own name. Thank You.
