A Message from our Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

Since our Religious Education Program has started and we are glad to let everyone know that the turnout of enrollment is quite impressive in the sense that there are more children who signed up for the program compared with last year and previous years. Hence, we are appealing for your support and help in the program. There are more volunteers needed to assist us in teaching and taking care of the kids. Please call the office for ways you can help. Thank you in advance for your quick and kind response.

TWENTY-EIGHT SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What do you think is the core of Jesus' message? The obvious answer is love. What is the fruit of love? The obvious answer is joy. Jesus and His disciples after Him began their preaching saying, "Repent, the kingdom of God is at hand." The Kingdom of God is close by. In today's Gospel Jesus gives us a picturesque description of the Kingdom. He describes it using the image of a wedding feast.

No celebration evokes and provides so much joy as a marriage feast. It is synonymous with joy and universal experience. In comparing the kingdom to a marriage feast, Jesus wants us to impress on our imagination the image of the kingdom as a place of joy and joviality, of joyful celebration in a joyous setting. In plain language, why did Jesus come and what did He do for us? From the above we can draw the conclusion that Jesus came to give us joy, to make us happy. He not only shows the way, but is the Way to the Kingdom of Joy, He Himself is the kingdom, He Himself is our joy.

To enter His Kingdom we must repent and change our direction, precisely because we can be going in the wrong direction. And to be going in the wrong direction here means walking away from what makes us happy and brings joy and peace.

Hence Jesus began His mission of bringing joy to man with the word 'repent'. But many, including the invitees in today's parable, did not repent, they did not have a change of direction in their lives and so sadly missed the most essential thing man thirsts for: joy in love. Caring little to know what the invitation held out for them, they went after smaller and baser satisfactions. Not only is the best enemy of the good, the good is often the enemy of the best as well.

Today God comes with a new revolutionary invitation list, in which the poor and the common people are the privileged ones. God in His love and concern invites everyone to the heavenly banquet. It is a banquet open to all, a feast from which no one is excluded. Isaiah in the first reading and Jesus in the Gospel emphasize that God's invitation is not an exclusive one. In the parable we see those who rejected God's invitation are rather well-to-do, holding up high positions in society. The ordinary common folk are quick and eager to accept the invitation. Even in our time, those who accept and embrace the Gospel values are not the well-educated and the financially secure but the poor and the humble.

Thank you, Lord, for the invitation to the Eucharistic and eternal banquet. Grant that I may not be found wanting. Amen.

May God bless you.. —Father Angelito

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from every face. (Is 25:8)

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. (Ps 23)

Saint of the week

Saint Rafael Guízar y Valencia was a Catholic bishop who cared for the poor in Mexico. He bravely continued his mission while in exile, in the face of constant life-threatening conflicts with the Mexican government.

Prayer

Our Lord and God, In Saint Rafael Guízar
You have given us a model of a shepherd for the children, the poor, the sick, and those far from You. Grant us through his intercession that we may live united in our families; that the Mexican nation may have peace and harmony; that the sick who live in our homes be lovingly cared for and receive healing from their diseases; that marriages that have been broken find a reason to fight and overcome the evil that stalks them.

Attend to our supplications and hear our needs so that one day, like Saint Rafael Guízar, we can all contemplate the beauty of
Your glory in eternity.

We ask you through your Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit and God the father, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Prayer for Radical Solidarity

O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own.

By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations. Ask your Son to give us unfailing determination to witness to the profound dignity of every person, at every stage and in every circumstance.

In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.

May our support help them to find hope and strength in the Lord.

Amen.

We Gather Together for 28th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Text - Theodore Baker

Melody: Dutch Folk Song - Anonymous

Text Meter 12.11.12.11.

"We Gather Together" is a beloved hymn with deep historical significance and scriptural references.

- Dutch Origins: "We Gather Together" originated in the Netherlands during the late 16th century. It was written in the midst of religious and political turmoil when the Dutch people sought freedom from Spanish rule and the oppression of the Catholic Church.
- Celebration of Freedom: The hymn reflects the Dutch people's joy and gratitude for achieving religious and political freedom. The phrase "We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing" echoes the sentiment of a thankful and united people.
- American Connection: Dutch Pilgrims who later settled in the United States brought the hymn with them. Over time, it became associated with Thanksgiving, as it beautifully expressed the themes of gratitude and unity.

Every October, we celebrate Respect Life Month. We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death

They return for Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine how it would feel to be invited by a king to come to his palace for a party! Well, you have been invited! God wants you to come. People who ignore God will not go to heaven. Don't ignore God. Say "yes" to his invitation. Go to God's party in heaven!
